

Familiarization & Troubleshooting Of the Carrier 48/50 PG/PM/PD Rooftop units

An intense 4 hour session with John Williams of Carrier Corp covering all aspects of unit construction, access, function and control of these versatile Hi-Tier R410a Packaged Rooftops with Scroll Compressors.

Class objective: To provide the student, by means of classroom instruction and hand out materials, sufficient material to start-up, configure and troubleshoot.

Topics covered
Unit construction, and installation criteria
Product Overview & Service Access
Option/Control Configuration
System Start up
Functional Overview
Troubleshooting.

Class Requirements: This class is for the Experienced technician.

Duration: Half Day (Approx) 8:00am to 12:00- 12:30pm.

Price $80 Per Person.

Included: Data Library (Memory Stick includes Product Data, Installation Manual, Controls Service Manual and Control Point Spread Sheet.
Morning refreshments and a lite lunch following the class.

Where & when:

Philadelphia, 2000 N59th Street	Tuesday March 23 rd 2010
Allentown, 914 Marcon Blvd suite 101	Tuesday March 30 th 2010
Camp Hill 490 St John's Church Rd	Tuesday April 13 th 2010

How to sign up Go to www.Peirce.com then go down to the "Training Courses Tab"
Click on the course you want and follow the prompts.

