

ZONING

At last, a one day class that guides Installers, Service Techs and Salesmen through all the critical phases of Residential Zoning from zone selection to installation, set up and troubleshooting of this sophisticated, and yet easy to use, control system.

Class Objectives

By use of classroom facilities, and PowerPoint presentations, explain the criteria for each specific application guide line. And to familiarize the student with all the facets of Installation, set-up and troubleshooting of the Infinity/Evolution Zoning Systems.

Topics Covered

The critical first step.
What criteria to use when selecting areas to zone
What requirements must be met for safe operation of the equipment
How to successfully meet the temperature and humidity requirements in each zone.
The implications of duct fittings and duct size on zone and equipment selection.
Explanation of the Infinity/Evolution zone control logic and operation parameters.
Product component overview.
Installation.
Wiring diagrams.
Commissioning a new system.
Using the control for troubleshooting.

Duration

8AM – 4PM

Price

$135.00 per person for all Bryant and Carrier dealers. All non dealers $290.00 per person. Includes; Morning coffee and donuts, Lunch and beverages, training/product manual.

Where and When

Philadelphia 2000 North 59th St

Thursday September 9th 2010

Camp Hill 490 St Johns Church Rd

Thursday September 16th 2010

How to sign up

On Line @ www.Peirce.com

Class eligible for 8 hours
continuing education credits

