

TROUBLESHOOTING THE THREE STAGE VARIABLE SPEED GAS FURNACE

Class Objective

To make the service technician's job easier and less stressful when troubleshooting this new state of the art product. This class will demonstrate and prove that using the troubleshooting guide is faster with far more accurate diagnosis than technicians trying to "Go it alone".

Topic covered

How the furnace actually works.
Understanding and reading the wiring diagram.
Using the troubleshooting guide as a tool.
Tips on various test procedures.
In depth analysis of several key fault codes.
In depth analysis of the variable speed motor fault.
The possible problems leading to the faults.
What you need to know about testing the components.
Trusting the troubleshooting guide to take you to the problem with confidence.
Test equipment required for each fault .

Duration

One full day 8AM to 4:00PM

Cost

$125.00 per person. Cancellations must be within two business days to avoid being billed. "No Shows" will be billed.

Price includes

Morning coffee and donuts, lunch, beverages, afternoon snack, Troubleshooting manuals and a class Certificate of Achievement.

Where and When

Camp Hill 490 St John Church Rd Tuesday September 28th 2010

Philadelphia Main office, 2000 N 59th St Thursday October 7th 2010

How to sign up

On line @ www.Peirce.com

